

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- The papers will be reviewed according to the degree of originality, relevance, clarity and contributions. The papers submitted for publication should not have been previously published or be under evaluation for publication. Each participant may be author or coauthor of maximum two papers.
- The papers accepted for presentation within the conference will be selected through a double blind review process.
- The conference has no fee for registration.
- The conference language is English.